Description:

On September 4, 2023, a highly anticipated Intra Collegiate Idea Presentation Competition took place at the Computer Science Seminar Hall. This event was organized to provide a platform for students and participants to showcase their innovative ideas and presentation skills. The competition aimed to foster creativity and encourage entrepreneurial thinking among the participants. The Idea Presentation Competition commenced at 1:30 PM and continued until 4:30 PM. Each presentation session allowed the participants 10 minutes to present their ideas, followed by a 5-minute Q&A session where judges and fellow participants could ask questions and seek clarification. A panel of distinguished judges, consisting of an internal judge - Dr. E. Kavitha, the HOD, ETE and an external judge – Mrs. S. Sowndeshwari, ISF Coordinator, Sambhram Institute of Technology, Bangalore. They assessed the presentations based on criterias such as relevance of topic, presentation skills, idea, societal impact and response to queries.

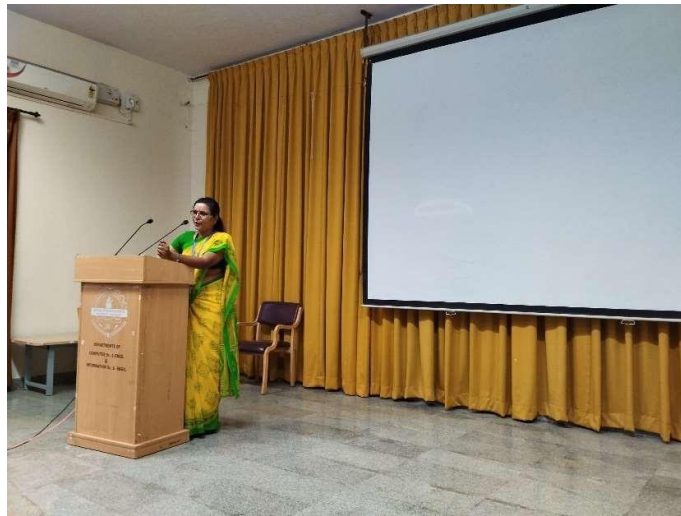

Objectives:

- Importance of innovation and sustainability.
- The importance of creative thinking and idea presentation.

Benefits in terms of learning/skills/knowledge obtained:

- Enriching the innovative ideas of the student.
- Igniting the creative thinking of the student.
- Encouraging and confidence building in the student.
